

Opportunities

Internships & Cooperative Education

- Internships are offered through the Career Development Center
- Cooperative education programs allow students to integrate their academic and career interests.
- Call the center to schedule an appointment and apply.

International Studies

- The Office of International Studies & Programs offers study and research abroad programs, international internships, the John Jay College-sponsored international conference
- Study abroad programs are offered in the summer and winter
- To learn more about these programs, please call to set up an appointment with Liza Carbajo, (212.484.1339, lcarbajo@jjay.cuny.edu) or Anderson Rosa (212.484.1390, arosa@jjay.cuny.edu).

Student Life:

Office of Student Activities and Clubs

- Office is located in 1521N etx. 8698.
- John Jay has many clubs, organizations, and ways for students to get involved in the community

Athletics

- Office is located on 4th Floor of Haaren Hall etx. 8371
- John Jay's athletic facilities include a fitness center and strength training room, outdoor running track, tennis court, racquetball court, and pool
- John Jay offers Intramural sports open to all students as well as varsity sports

Peer Counseling Center

445 W 59th Street
New York, NY 10019
Room 3134N
Phone: 212-237-8271
Email:
PeerCounseling@jjay.cuny.edu

Student Resources at John Jay

JOHN JAY COLLEGE
THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Department of Counseling
Counseling Services

@ John Jay

What can John Jay do for you?

Academic Advising

- Academic Advising offered by the Peer Counseling Center
- For Freshmen: the Office of Freshman Services; ext. 8120
- Advising is also offered by academic departments

Career Development Center

- 3400N – ext.8754
- Career Advisement
- Graduate and professional school planning
- Workshops
- Career and graduate school fairs

Department of Counseling

- 3140N; ext. 8111
- Free personal counseling
- Academic advisement
- Peer counseling
- Group counseling
- Workshops

Student Health Center

- 2308N – ext.8052
- Offers students health information, immunizations, and over-the-counter medicine.
- Health-related programs are offered throughout the semester including health fairs, blood drives, health education, workshops, and forums

Career advising and graduate and professional school planning can help you figure out where you want to go and how to get there.

Tutoring can help you do well in your classes

Academic Advising can help you figure out what classes you want to take

Students involved in their school community are more likely to succeed academically

Academic Resources:

Academic Facilities

- Lloyd George Sealey Library
- Workshops to help students with research
- Computer Labs

Writing Center

- 2450N; ext.8569
- Offers workshops and tutoring throughout the semester
- Tutorial staff offer help in all stages of writing

Math & Science Resource Center

- 3400N; 646.557.4635
- Small group tutoring by appointment

Foreign Language Lab

- 112 Westport building; ext.8707 and 1140
- Tutoring in French, Spanish, Italian, Chinese, and Arabic

Other Resources

- The Department of Political Science and Department of Psychology offer tutoring and Workshops. The Department is located in room 3231N; ext. 8194