

The College Initiative is moving to Lehman College!

As of July 1, 2007 the College Initiative will move from John Jay College of Criminal Justice to Lehman College in the Bronx. The College Initiative will continue to serve as a CUNY-wide resource for formerly incarcerated men and women returning to New York City who are interested in pursuing higher education opportunities.

The relocation to Lehman College will enable the College Initiative to better serve its sizable cohort of students pursuing Lehman's Social Work and Adult Degree Programs. Moreover, the strength and expertise of Lehman's Division of Adult and Continuing Education will serve as a valuable resource to the College Initiative's growing College Prep program.

After July 1, the College Initiative will be physically located at Lehman College in Room 003B of the Old Gym.

New contact information:

The College Initiative
Lehman College
Division of Adult and Continuing Education
250 Bedford Park Blvd. West
Bronx NY, 10468
(718) 960-1970
www.thecollegeinitiative.com

CI staff:

Benay Rubenstein, Director
Charlene Griffin, Assistant Director
Kirk James, Academic Counselor
Cheryl Wilkins, Academic Counselor
Dwight Stephenson, Administrative Assistant

Important Announcements:

- The College Initiative will not be holding orientation sessions in July.

- For updates about the move, the Fall new student orientation schedule and new initiatives with the Fortune Society, visit the new College Initiative website.

During the year in which the College Initiative was housed at John Jay College, the size of the student body grew, grant funding increased, and program infrastructure strengthened. The entire College Initiative staff and student community extend heartfelt thanks to our colleagues at John Jay College of Criminal Justice for a successful and productive year.