STUDY ABROAD TO ASIA
BALI, INDONESIA

Summer 2015: May 28th to June 28th
"Don't talk about heaven if you've never been to Bali". –Toba Beta

Cultural and Psychological Theories of Self in Society:
A Case Study in Bali
Professor Chitra Raghavan

This program will take place in Ubud, Bali. While Indonesia is host to the largest Muslim population in the world, the majority of residents in Bali are Hindu. Students will be exposed to Balinese Hindu and animist spiritual beliefs as it pertains to the Balinese construction of self, wellness, psychopathology, and healing. Cultural relevance of Western models of gendered and sexual selves will be compared to Balinese experience of selfhood and its relevance to wellness and healing in an increasingly globalizing Balinese world. Classwork will be supplemented with Balinese guest lecturers, visits to cultural sites, temples, traditional healers and nonprofit organizations.

Undergraduate Courses:
PSY 345- Culture, Psychopathology and Healing (3-credit)
PSY 352- Multicultural Psychology (3-credit)

Graduate Course:
PSY 825- Diversity Issues in Forensic Psychology (3-credit)

Application Deadline:
Monday, March 16, 2015

Estimated Program Cost:
Undergraduate student: $5,075
Graduate student: $4,730
Graduate student (MPA): $4,940

Estimated costs include:
Housing, airfare, airport pickup/drop-off, departure tax, international health insurance, meals, all ground transportation, excursions and in-state tuition.

For more information visit:
The Office of International Studies & Programs
Room 1102N, 212-484-1390
or contact studyabroad@jjay.cuny.edu
www.jjay.cuny.edu/studyabroad

Inquire about study abroad scholarships and financial aid