Studying in Castellón, España, this summer from June 20 to July 11, España: Un destino tan distinto... y tan familiar

Por La Justicia Social:

Crime Victims in Comparative Context

Profesora Rosemary Barberet

Esta programa will take place en Castellón, España. The purpose of this study abroad program is to engage students in the comparative study of victimología by examining the causes, consequences and responses to victimization en España y el resto de la Union Europa. España is an ideal site for expanding our U.S.-based knowledge about crime victims. Besides victims of common crimes, there are active groups of victims of Basque terrorism, of the March 11th, 2004 bombings in Madrid (linked to Al Qaeda), the largest attack to date on European soil, and there is renewed interest in the victims of la dictadura del General Francisco Franco (1939-1975).

Undergraduate Course:
SOC/CRJ 236 - Victimology (3-credit)

Graduate Course:
CRJ 778 – Victimology (3-credit)

Application Deadline:
Lunes, Marzo 16, 2015

Estimated Program Cost:
Undergraduate student: $4,179
Graduate student: $4,614
Graduate student (MPA): $4,824

Estimated costs include:
Housing, airfare, health insurance, breakfast-lunch (Monday-Thursday only), additional meals, transportation, excursions and in-state tuition.

For more information visit:
The Office of International Studies & Programs
Room 1102N, 212-484-1390
or contact studyabroad@jjay.cuny.edu
www.jjay.cuny.edu/studyabroad

Inquire about study abroad scholarships and financial aid