STUDY ABROAD TO LATIN AMERICA
QUITO, ECUADOR

Summer 2015: June 1st to June 30th
"The first duty of a government is to give education to the people". – Simon Bolivar

Restorative & Community Justice in Latin America
Professor Luis Barrios

Latin America is a vibrant and expanding area of academic activity attracting scholars and students from a wide range of disciplines and interests, including history, literature, economics, languages, geography, politics, philosophy and international relations. This program provides an educational experience that engages students in their personal, social, and intellectual growth by providing opportunities to explore and learn while studying in Quito, Ecuador. It is designed to give students a comparative view of Latin America, through the lenses of critical studies. Students will study the social dynamics of power, privilege, control, and inequality.

Undergraduate Special Topics Courses:
LLS 280- Introduction to Restorative Peacemaking Practices (3-credit)
LLS 280- Racial Subordination and Community Justice in Latin America (3-credit)

Graduate Course:
CRJ 767– Deviant Behavior (3-credit)

Application Deadline:
Monday, March 16, 2015

Estimated Program Cost:
Undergraduate student: $3,589
Graduate student: $3,244
Graduate student (MPA): $3,454

Estimated costs include:
Housing, airfare, airport pick up/drop-off, international health insurance, breakfast-lunch (Monday-Friday only), additional meals, all ground transportation, excursions and in-state tuition.

For more information visit:
The Office of International Studies & Programs
Room 1102N, 212-484-1390
or contact studyabroad@jjay.cuny.edu
www.jjay.cuny.edu/studyabroad

Inquire about study abroad scholarships and financial aid