To the John Jay College Community:

The CUNY Board of Trustees members serving on the John Jay College Presidential Search Committee together with the search consultants will be visiting the College on Tuesday, December 20, 2016 to meet with various campus constituencies. In addition, there will be an Open Forum that will provide the entire campus community an opportunity to provide input and ask questions.

The Open Forum will take place from 1:40-2:30pm in the Moot Court Room.
