

STUDENT EMERGENCY TUITION (SET) GRANT

The SET grants provide tuition assistance to current students who are facing emergencies that are a barrier to continuing with their degree program.

Maximum award: $1,500–$2,000

WHAT IT COVERS

- Tuition assistance

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Current undergraduate and graduate degree students, including undocumented students and students with DACA, who are facing emergencies that are impeding their ability to continue forward in their degree program. This grant is for non-CUSP-participating students in good academic standing who owe $1,500 or less in tuition.

HOW TO APPLY

Students may apply for a SET grant in the Wellness Center or visit the Emergency Funding webpage at:

CUSP COMPLETION GRANT

The Completion for Upper-division Student Program (CUSP) Completion Grants help clear unpaid tuition balances for undergraduate seniors in the CUSP cohort with 90+ credits.

Maximum award: Varies, depending on individual student balances—average is typically $1,500–$3,000

WHAT IT COVERS

- Bursar balances for unpaid tuition

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

CUSP Seniors, as identified by the College, with 90+ credits (not currently dismissed.) Students are identified part of the CUSP cohort during the summer before their senior year, an email will be sent from the CUSP office notifying the student is part of the cohort.

HOW TO APPLY

Students must first complete the FAFSA to determine need and remaining Financial Aid funding that could be applied, if any. (Undocumented students need not complete a FAFSA.) After FAFSA is loaded, Financial Aid advisor confirms need. Students should next meet with a CUSP Academic advisor to check eligibility, prepare a Graduation Completion Plan, and review other grant application materials required.
