Overview:

In my last operational assignment, I served as the Assistant Deputy Commissioner and Director of Security for the New York City Human Resources Administration. In this capacity, I directed the New York City HRA Police who provide both law enforcement and security services on a city-wide basis to over 18,000 HRA staff personnel and a client population in excess of 500,000. In addition to this experience, I am retired from the New York City Police Department, where I achieved the rank of Captain and served in some of the NYPD's most distinguished squads. I have also served as the Chief of Police for Milford, Massachusetts as well as several high profile international law enforcement assignments. I also possess extremely strong academic credentials in the field of Criminal Justice and Protection Management.
