Major Advising

• It is never too early for transfer students to receive major advisement in addition to general advisement!

• Learn how to connect with your major advisor through the AAC or an academic department: Major Advisement and Resources webpages

With a major advisor you can:
• Discuss transfer credits that were or were not applied to major requirements
• Confirm progress towards major completion
• Discuss graduate school, careers, and opportunities in your major field