Recommendation for the Position of Peer Advisor

__________________________ is applying for a position as a Peer Advisor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Peer Advisors play an integral role in introducing new students and parents to John Jay College. They must be mature, articulate and responsible individuals who have established strong academic records at John Jay College. Since they will be meeting new students and parents, they must have the personality and interpersonal skills necessary to work effectively with individuals and groups. They will serve as positive role models for new students as well as continuing students.

How well and in what capacity do you know the applicant?

What qualities have you observed in the applicant that you feel would qualify him/her for this position?

What factors would limit the applicant’s performance as a Peer Advisor?

Please indicate your overall assessment of the applicant:

☐ Highly recommend ☐ Recommend ☐ Recommend with reservations ☐ Do not recommend
