MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Students, Alumni, & Employers:

WELCOME TO OUR ANNUAL JOB & INTERNSHIP FAIR! Each year, this fair brings together a range of employers representing all industries and sectors to meet one of the most diverse, talented student and alumni populations in the country. We are pleased that in these challenging economic times, over 100 employers have made John Jay College of Criminal Justice a priority for recruiting by attending this event.

To the employers present: Allow us to re-introduce you to John Jay College of Criminal Justice. We serve over 15,000 students in a variety of undergraduate and graduate programs with an emphasis on "Educating for Justice." Our faculty is revising, developing and proposing new programs at an impressive rate as evidenced by recently developed undergraduate majors like English, Economics, Global History, and Gender Studies as well as graduate programs like Forensic Mental Health Counseling and International Crime and Justice. For our students, this means an unlimited opportunity to create career paths of their own choosing through the world-class experiences offered by John Jay College. For you, this creates an unprecedented opportunity to identify and recruit candidates for all areas of your organization with one event.

To the students and alumni attending the event: We hope that each of you takes the time today to speak with the array of employers present to explore and identify new professional networks and opportunities. From jobs to internships to volunteer positions, any chance you have to gain practical experience with our employer partners will only assist you in building your career marketability.

Best of luck to all of attendees today! We look forward to hearing about your success and working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Will Simpkins
Senior Director, Center for Career & Professional Development

FOR OUR UNDERGRADUATE & GRADUATE STUDENTS

The mission of the Center for Career & Professional Development is to assist students and alumni in finding success in the career of their choosing through career exploration, skill development, gaining practical experience, and building a professional network. We work to ensure that each student or alumni we serve approaches his or her professional life with confidence, a sense of purpose and public service, and the knowledge and experience that will propel him or her to success!

JOHN JAY CAREERS ONLINE is students' online portal to viewing internships, full- and part-time jobs, and volunteer opportunities geared directly to John Jay College students; requesting a counseling appointment; and registering for events.

CAREER ADVISEMENT & GRADUATE SCHOOL PLANNING will assist students in thinking about their interests, determining which they would like to pursue, and how to connect their academic major to career planning. Students are able to meet with counselors one-on-one during Drop-In Hours, which are Monday-Friday 9:00-5:00pm and individual 45 minute appointments. Additionally, we hold weekly workshops discussing these and other topics surrounding career development.

INTERNSHIPS allow students to gain hands-on experience while developing career-specific skills. We assist students in deciding when to do an internship, identifying potential employers, and developing on-the-job success strategies.

NETWORKING is a key strategy behind successful job searches and career success. We assist students in building a network by exposing them to alumni and professionals in their field at career fairs, panels, workshops, and networking receptions.

ON CAMPUS RECRUITMENT encompasses the many ways that students can learn about our employer partners and meet them in person. On campus recruitment includes career panels, information sessions, tabling events and career & graduate school fairs like this one.

Housing Court Answers

<http://Housingcourtanswers.org>

Housing Court Answers helps unrepresented litigants in housing court. 75% of all tenants in NYC Housing Court face the prospect of fighting eviction without an attorney. 90% of all landlords have attorneys. Most cases in Housing Court are settled in the hallways with very little court supervision. Housing Court Answers' mission is to help level the playing field and you can help us by working with our program – “The Court Navigator Program.”

Interns in this program will work with HCA staff to help unrepresented tenants file answers to non-payment petitions, helping tenants raise defenses and providing information on how to proceed when they return to court. Tenants assisted will be screened for additional help, and those chosen can be referred to one of our partners in the program for one on one case work. These tenants will be given a case worker to help them secure funds for rental arrears, organize their documents and accompany them back to court.

The City of New York Department of Investigation

<http://nyc.gov/doi>

@DOINews

The New York City Department of Investigation (DOI)

DOI is one of the oldest law-enforcement agencies in the country, formed in the 1870s following a scandal in which the corrupt William “Boss” Tweed and his unscrupulous cronies skimmed millions from the City coffers. DOI Investigations may involve any agency, officer, elected official or employee of the City, as well as those who do business with or receive benefits from the City. As New York City's watchdog, DOI's strategy attacks corruption comprehensively through systemic investigations that lead to high-impact arrests, preventive controls and operational reforms that improve the way the City runs.
