9/11 Memorial & Museum

<https://www.911memorial.org>

The National September 11 Memorial & Museum has a dual mission of commemoration and education. The 9/11 Memorial opened on September 11, 2011, marking the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks. It continues to be one of our nation's most visited sites, as people from all over the world come to honor those who were killed on 9/11 and reflect on the compassion and humanity evidenced in the aftermath of the attacks.

And it is through the 9/11 Memorial Museum that we fulfill a sacred obligation to preserve this crucial history for future generations. The Museum is the global focal point for telling the story of what happened on 9/11 through first person accounts, artifacts, and digital documentation. It is also through the Museum that we honor and remember those who died in the attacks through the lives they lived, rather than the deaths they died, and stand witness to the many stories of bravery and sacrifice.

East Harlem Tutorial Program

<http://ehtp.org>

East Harlem Tutorial Program began in 1958 as a children's reading group hosted by a community member in her living room; it has since grown into a multi-site after-school program for students who attend traditional public schools and a public charter school operator focused on significantly increasing the college graduation rate in East Harlem. Between our after-school programs and charter schools, more than 15,000 East Harlem youth and their families have walked through our doors - and, by participating in our year-long free programs, they have improved their academic skills, developed confidence, and found community.

EHTP is undergoing a period of rapid growth. We will open East Harlem Scholars Academy High School in 2019 and Scholars Academy II Elementary in 2020, grow our after-school programs, and scale the East Harlem Teaching Residency. EHTP is on track to expand its programs to serve 25% of all East Harlem public school students by 2025.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

<http://www.cbp.gov/careers>

With more than 60,000 employees, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, CBP, is one of the world's largest law enforcement organizations and is charged with keeping terrorists and their weapons out of the U.S. while facilitating lawful international travel and trade.

As the United States' first unified border entity, CBP takes a comprehensive approach to border management and control, combining customs, immigration, border security, and agricultural protection into one coordinated and supportive activity.

The men and women of CBP are responsible for enforcing hundreds of U.S. laws and regulations. On a typical day, CBP welcomes nearly one million visitors, screens more than 67,000 cargo containers, arrests more than 1,100 individuals, and seizes nearly 6 tons of illicit drugs. Annually, CBP facilitates an average of more than $3 trillion in legitimate trade while enforcing U.S. trade laws.

United States Coast Guard

<https://www.gocoastguard.com/>

The Coast Guard is one of our nation's five military services. Our core values-honor, respect, and devotion to duty, are the guiding principles used to defend and preserve the United States of America. We protect the personal safety and security of our people; the marine transportation system and infrastructure; our natural and economic resources; and the territorial integrity of our nation-from both internal and external threats, natural and man-made. We protect these interests in U.S. ports, inland waterways, along the coasts, and on international waters.

Currently, the Coast Guard is seeking highly motivated individuals from John Jay, who qualify for our College Student Pre-Commissioning Initiative, or CSPI program. CSPI provides college sophomores and juniors with valuable leadership, management, law enforcement, navigation and marine science skills and training, while fully funding up to two years of college.
