SPECIAL EVENT SECURITY SEMINAR

This seminar will feature nationally recognized security experts who will give participants an inside view on how event security planners design, plan and implement a safety and security plan for a large-scale event, or a special event of national significance. Executive protection best practices derived from multiple special events will be shared and discussed. Proven fundamental principles will be covered while maintaining an open dialogue and an exchange of ideas with the audience. This is a critical element for every law enforcement or security professional to add to their skill-set.
