

STUDENT EMERGENCY TUITION (SET) GRANT

The SET grants provide tuition assistance to current students who are facing emergencies that are a barrier to continuing with their degree program.

Maximum award: $1,500–$2,000

WHAT IT COVERS

- Tuition assistance

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Current undergraduates and master's students, including both DACA and undocumented, who are facing emergencies that are impeding their ability to continue forward in their degree program. This grant is for non-CUSP-participating students in good academic standing who owe $1,500 or less in tuition.

HOW TO APPLY

Students may apply for a SET grant in the Wellness Center or visit the Emergency Funding webpage at:

CUSP COMPLETION GRANT

The Completion for Upper-division Student Program (CUSP) Completion Grants help clear unpaid tuition balances for seniors with 90+ credits.

Maximum award: Varies, depending on individual student balances—average is typically $1,500–$2,000

WHAT IT COVERS

- Bursar balances for unpaid tuition

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Seniors with 90+ credits who are eligible (not currently dismissed or re-admitted after dismissal), as identified by the College.

HOW TO APPLY

Students must first complete the FAFSA to determine need and remaining Financial Aid funding that could be applied, if any. (Undocumented students need not complete a FAFSA.) After FAFSA is loaded, Financial Aid advisor confirms need. Then students meet with a CUSP advisor for Academic Completion Plan and grant application.
