

17TH CONFERENCE OF THE
INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY OF INVESTIGATIVE PSYCHOLOGY
HOSTED BY JOHN JAY COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE
CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

INVESTIGATIVE PSYCHOLOGY:
PRACTICE INFORMED RESEARCH & RESEARCH BASED PRACTICE
NEW YORK CITY • MAY 13-14, 2016

SUBMISSION DEADLINE NOVEMBER 30TH, 2015
WWW.JJAY.CUNY.EDU/IAIP2016

Investigative Psychology Research Unit

WELCOME

Welcome to the International Academy for Investigative Psychology's 17th international conference, hosted by the Investigative Psychology Research Unit at John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York City.

The International Academy for Investigative Psychology is a leading professional academy for researchers and practitioners seeking to apply social science to the investigation and legal processes.

Our 2016 conference theme specifically focusses on the intersection between research and practice, and will showcase on the latest developments within Investigative Psychology and is an excellent opportunity for both researchers and practitioners to network and learn from others within an intellectually stimulating environment.

Conference Topics:

- Practice informed Research
- Evidence lead Policing
- Research & Practice Collaboration Work
- Offender Profiling
- Linking Serial Crime
- Sexual and Violent Crime
- Property Crime
- Effective Interviewing in Investigations and Court
- Case Linkage in Court
- Developments in Geographical Offender Profiling
- Court Psychology & Expert Psychological Testimony
- Detecting Deception
- Crime Science
- Investigative Decision Making
- The intersection of clinical psychology and investigative psychology
- And many other topics...