Socio-Political Development of Contemporary Puerto Rico

Tuesdays/Thursdays
Period 6
4:30pm-5:45pm
Professor Brian Montes

Political, social, and economic issues in Puerto Rico from the 1930s to the present. Political developments leading to the establishment of the “Commonwealth,” and attendant economic problems. Consequence of Puerto Rico’s involvement with the United States.

Fulfills Requirements for:

- Major in Latin American & Latina/o Studies (BA)
- Minor in Latin American and Latina/o Studies
- Electives

If you experience any difficulty registering, please call the Department of Latin American and Latina/o Studies at 212-237-8749 or visit the department in room 8.63.00