A comparative study of human rights policies, procedures, legislation, and practices in Latin American countries. The impact of international and national conventions, bills, and laws on the present observance of these rights. Inquiry into morality, social justice, social and professional ethics. This course can be taken to satisfy requirements for the International Criminal Justice major.

Fulfills requirements for:

- Major in Latin American and Latina/o Studies (BA)
- Major in International Criminal Justice (BA)
- Major in Deviant Behavior and Social Control
- Major in Justice Studies*
  - Dispute Resolution Certificate equivalency
- Minor in Latin American and Latina/o Studies
- Minor in Human Rights Studies
- Elective

*Prerequisites for courses may be waived by the Instructor.