Fulfills requirements for:

- Major in Latin American and Latina/o Studies (BA)
- Major in International Criminal Justice (BA)
- Minor in Latin American and Latina/o Studies
- Elective

Human Rights and Law in Latin America

LLS 220.01 (5300)

Tuesdays/Thursdays

Period 2 (9:25 a.m. - 10:40 a.m.)

Professor José Luis Morín

A comparative study of human rights policies, procedures, legislation, and practices in Latin American countries. The impact of international and national conventions, bills, and laws on the present observance of these rights. Inquiry into morality, social justice, social and professional ethics.

If you experience any difficulty registering, please call the or visit the Department of Latin American and Latina/o Studies at 212-237-8749, room 8.63.01 NB.