Latino/a Struggles for Civil Rights and Social Justice
LLS 322

This course provides an interdisciplinary overview of the experiences of Mexican Americans, Puerto Ricans and other Latino/as during the Civil Rights period. It focuses on the Latino/a social movements during the 1960s and their consequences today for the struggles for civil rights and social justice of Latino/as and other racial minorities in the US. Topics include access to education and employment; immigrant rights; detention and deportation; race and crime; Latino/a and African American alliance building; Latino/a citizenship and the military and gender values and sexuality.

Prerequisite: English 201 and junior standing or above; or permission from the section instructor.

Fulfills Requirements for:
- GEN ED college option: Struggle for Justice & Equality in the U.S. (300-level)
- Major in Latin American and Latina/o Studies (BA)
- Major in Criminal Justice
- Major in Political Science
- Major in Culture and Deviance Studies

- Deviance Studies
- Major in Legal Studies
- Major in Humanities and Justice
- Minor in Latin American and Latina/o Studies
- Elective

If you experience any difficulty registering, please call the Department of Latin American and Latina/o Studies at 212-237-8749 or visit the department in room 8.63.00