THE DEPARTMENT OF LATIN AMERICAN AND LATINA/O STUDIES OF
JOHN JAY COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE IN COLLABORATION WITH
ST. JOHN’S UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
IS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE

THE RONALD H. BROWN LAW SCHOOL PREP PROGRAM
Summer 2016
Law School Prep Program

The Ronald H. Brown Law School Prep Program prepares students for the challenges of law school, the LSAT and the law school application process. The Sophomore Program includes law school courses taught by actual law school faculty, internships with judges and lawyers working in a variety of practice settings. The Junior Program engages students in a comprehensively designed LSAT prep course. Both programs help give the Ronald H. Brown Prep Program students have an edge in the admissions process.

Prep Program Eligibility, Dates, and Curriculum
Sophomore Program
Eligibility
- Grade point average 3.0 or better
- Have completed 45-75 college credits as of June 1, 2016
- Low income or first generation college or professional student or member of a group underrepresented in law school education

Curriculum: May-July 2016
- Three weeks of courses (past examples include criminal law, legal writing, race/racism and the law, civil procedure, immigration law, etc.)
- Two weeks of judicial internships
- Four weeks of non-judicial internships (e.g., AXA Equitable Legal Department, District Attorney’s Office, and others)

Junior Program
Eligibility
- Grade point average 3.0 or better
- Have completed 90 college credits as of June 1, 2016
- Low income or first generation college or professional student or member of a group underrepresented in law school education

Curriculum: May-November 2016
- Nine weeks of in person LSAT classes and other workshops
- Distance learning or in-person study sessions and diagnostics
- Mentorship Program
- Evening Events at NYC Law Firms

Please note: Students will not be allowed to work or attend other summer program/school for the duration of this summer program. Students must attend all year long Ronald H. Brown Program events and workshops.

Application Deadline: Friday, January 29th, 2016

We urge you to apply early!
Applications are available in room 8.62.02 NB

For more information, please contact Natalia Marte, JJC/RHB Assistant Director, at 212-237-8710 or via e-mail to nmarte@jjay.cuny.edu. JJC RHB is a CUNY BMI funded program