PROFILE

I am a Computer Science and Information Security major and Cybercrime minor. This is my fifth semester tutoring in College Algebra and Intro to Computer Science topics. I started teaching math and coding in high school. I have also completed two summer internships with Bank of America as a technology analyst and I'm going to be a part of their Global Information Security department after I graduate. Furthermore, I am a nature lover and avid hiker as well as a huge fan of Harry Potter and Marvel Comics.
