

5 TIPS TO SUCCEED IN ONLINE CLASSES

1 Keep a Schedule

Stick to the normal schedule you would have on campus, and get up and go to bed consistently. Make to-do list of daily/weekly assignments, and readings, and set reminders for yourself

2 Find a Good Study Space

You need good WIFI, and a comfortable and organized space with the minimum of distractions

3 Form a Study Group

Make studying fun(ish) and reach out to other students in your class by forming a study group. You might even make some new friends out of it

4 Take Breaks

Know your limits. When you've been staring at a screen for hours, your brain becomes tired. Go for a walk, grab a snack, and take a breather

5 Reach Out to Your Professors

When you have questions or fall behind, don't be afraid to send a professor an email or go to virtual office hours. Your success is your instructors' success. They are there to help
