

What strategies will you use to work with your success team?

Check all the boxes that apply and think about how these activities will support students' success in your course.

Peer success coaches	Academic Advisors	Career Specialists
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Set up a meeting with your coach at the start of the semester to discuss your course format and expectations for student support • Schedule ongoing peer coach meetings, 1-2x per month • Communicate via email regarding concerns about student progress • Complete early alert roster in the third week of classes • Identify academic supports peer coaches can offer in class (e.g.: supporting group work, assignment planning) • Ask peers to refer students to appropriate services on campus (e.g.: academic support, counseling, emergency funds) • Support peer success coach's efforts to recruit students to participate in coaching sessions and attend events • Other _____ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invite your academic advisor for a class visit before your students' advising session (10-15 minutes) • Make email referrals to your advisor regarding any students' concerns regarding their spring courses • Ask students about their advising session and plans to enroll in the fall semester • Reinforce messaging about advising sessions, re-enrollment and progress to graduation • Encourage students to attend the spring re-enrollment fair • Other _____ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invite your career specialist for a class visit to preview career exploration resources at John Jay (30 minutes) • Make email referrals to your specialist regarding students who express interest in finding a job, internship, or seeking opportunities on campus • Encourage students to attend the spring career fair on 3/15, even if they will just participate as observers • Utilize the Don't Cancel that Class Program, where a career specialist can conduct a career presentation for a class period • Other _____