“Celebrity Status” is comprised of two things – websites and awards. Celebrity status basically means the popularity of the provider. The more popular the provider, the more likely they are to have a website or award (derived from common logic). The awards are ones given by experts and critics in the adult entertainment industry. It’s interesting to note that the graphs are almost the same.