

SYMPOSIUM ON CAREER TRANSITION: FROM PUBLIC SAFETY TO THE PRIVATE SECURITY INDUSTRY

SYMPOSIUM AGENDA

This seminar will feature security experts, who will give participants an inside view on how an individual can successfully transition from Public Policing to the Private Security Industry.

Seminar Agenda:

9:00AM: Opening remarks– Introductions by Associate Director, Center for Private Security and Safety, Anthony Gentile and Chair of Security, Fire, and Emergency Management and Director of Center for Private Security and Safety Charles Nemeth

9:15AM: Distinguished Lecturer, Department of Security, Fire, and Emergency Management, Mark Camillo

9:30: Dennis Cunningham, Executive Vice President/Director of Security for the National Hockey League

10:00AM: Panel Discussion with Mark Camillo, Director of Security for the Mercantile Exchange Mary Raymond, and Adjunct Professor Robert Matthiessen

11:00AM: Career Opportunities in the Security Industry with Erica Harrison from ASIS

12:00PM: Lunch

1:00PM: Ernita Gantt from the New York Department of State Licensing Services

1:30PM: James Tchir from the New Jersey State Police Department

2:00PM: Anthony Gentile discusses Business Opportunities in the Security Industry

3:00PM: Symposium concludes