HERE IS A RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY FOR UPPER JUNIORS AND SENIORS MAJORING IN CRIMINOLOGY

Consider Taking The Honors Track!

What Is Involved?

The research you will carry out is either:

a) Serving as a research assistant for a professor in the Sociology Department who is studying some issue related to the crime problem. Sign up for a two-semester research internship (SOC 430–SOC 431).

b) Conducting research into some issue of your choosing that is related to the crime problem, under the supervision of a professor in the Sociology Department. Sign up for an independent study course for two terms.

Who is eligible?

a) You must have completed 75 credits.
b) You must have a cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.5.

If you are interested, please contact one of the Advisors Robert Garot, Jayne Mooney or Lucia Trimbur in the Sociology Department (Rgarot@jjay.cuny.edu, Jmooney@jjay.cuny.edu, or Ltrimbur@jjay.cuny.edu) before you register for the Spring 2017 term.