- Conflict of Interest
  - Required for all Principal Investigators/Key Persons conducting research related to any Public Health Service (PHS) funded grant or contract.

- Protection of Human Subjects
  - CUNY faculty, postdoctoral scholars, graduate and undergraduate students who interact with human subjects, have access to private information about human subjects, or provide direct oversight of research with human subjects are required to complete CITI training in the protection of human subjects PRIOR to Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval.

CITI Training: https://www.citiprogram.org/
Human Research Protection Program (HRPP)…formerly IRB

HRPP or IRB Review is Required when ALL of the following criteria are met:

1. The investigator is conducting research or clinical investigation;

2. The proposed research or clinical investigation involves human subjects; AND

3. CUNY is engaged in the research or clinical investigation involving human subjects.

Definitions and additional details may be found at: http://www.cuny.edu/research/compliance/human-subjects-research-1/hrpp-policies-procedures.html
HRPP…formerly IRB

HRPP or IRB Review is Required when ALL of these criteria are met:

1. Research – A systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalized knowledge.

2. Human Subject – A living individual about whom an investigator (whether professional or student) conducting research obtains 1) data through intervention or interaction with the individual, or 2) identifiable private information.

3. Engaged – CUNY is considered engaged in a particular human research project when CUNY employees or agents* obtain, for the purposes of the research project 1) data about the subjects of the research through intervention or interaction with them; 2) identifiable private information about the subjects of the research; 3) the informed consent of human subjects for the research.

*Refers to individuals who: 1) act on behalf of CUNY 2) exercise institutional authority or responsibility or 3) perform institutionally designated activities. Employees or agents can include, contractors, and volunteers among others, regardless of whether the individual is receiving compensation.
Levels of IRB Review
