LEADING AND ADVISING

Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, U.S. Army Special Operations Command, Ft. Bragg, NC (July 2001 – July 2003)

Led, coached, trained, mentored, and evaluated, in absence of Staff Judge Advocate, a worldwide staff of over 60 military attorneys and staff during the Global War on Terror, providing the entire range of legal support to military operations. Primary advisor to senior commanders and staff on matters of exceptional sensitivity, urgency, and importance in the conduct of military operations in accordance with international humanitarian and US law, administrative and labor law, professional ethics, criminal justice, and allocation and usage of multi-million dollar resources. Oversaw requisite classified and unclassified budget, training requirements, and professional development of assigned staff of lawyers and paralegals, and several dozen reserve and subordinate organizational staffs.

Chief, International and Operational Law Division, Office of The Staff Judge Advocate, XVIII Airborne Corps & Ft. Bragg, Ft. Bragg, NC (July 2000 – July 2001)

Led, coached, trained, and mentored over 40 attorneys and staff, and set standards and evaluated performance for over a hundred other attorneys and staff around the U.S., on the law of armed conflict and international humanitarian law, employment and deployment of forces, culminating in an unprecedented multi-echelon externally evaluated event gauging preparedness for war fighting capability and capacity.
Professional development instructor to dozens of senior and junior commanders and staff. Commended for exemplary performance culminating in an unprecedented multi-echelon externally evaluated event gauging preparedness for war fighting capability and capacity.

Legal Advisor, Command Operations Review Board, U.S. Special Operations Command, MacDill AFB, Tampa, FL (June 1997 – July 2000)
