All CUNY Justice Academy students at Community Colleges are invited to submit their thoughts and artistic expressions about “The Future of Justice” for this contest to honor John Jay’s 50 year of educating for justice.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Submit your work as an email attachment or web link to cja@jjay.cuny.edu by December 15, 2014.
- Submissions can be academic papers, fiction, poetry, art, photography, film, spoken word, comics, music, digital compositions… whatever best expresses your ideas about justice.

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS

- Will human rights advance?
- Will we find a way to sustain our planet?
- Will human difference always create injustice?
- Are love and justice the same thing?

AWARDS

Honored submissions to the contest will be exhibited in the President’s Gallery in March 2015. The very finest submissions will receive monetary awards of up to $500.
