

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 crisis that led to the closure of CUNY campuses, the 2020 Research & Creativity Expo will be presented through a variety of online platforms, webinars, and zoom symposia, organized by the programs listed below. As every year, John Jay College undergraduate and graduate students participate in the online 2020 Research & Creativity Expo, displaying works that cover a multitude of disciplines and led by dedicated faculty. Projects range from one to two semester-long capstone projects to long-term student-faculty collaborative work leading to publications, theses, or other proposals.

John Jay's Finest

April 27, 2020

John Jay's Finest is an annual publication honoring outstanding student writing from across the undergraduate curriculum. As every year, writings featured in the 2020 anthology have been nominated by the student-writers' professor and vetted by the publication's editors.

PRISM Undergraduate Research e-Symposium

May 4, 2020 – 4:00-7:00pm

An on-line celebration of our PRISM Undergraduate Researchers at John Jay. Presentations by our Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher, Alejandro Ocampo, and our keynote speaker, John Jay and PRISM alumni, Olivia Orta, MPH, ScD. Dr. Orta will discuss her career trajectory from John Jay College to Harvard University. PRISM students will present five-minute talks about their research on topics including forensic science, toxicology, biomedical sciences, chemistry, and computer science.

Virtual ePortfolio Showcase 2020

May 4, 2020 – 1:00pm via IG Live @JJCePortfolio

The ePortfolio Program will be hosting an Instagram Live session to unveil the Virtual ePortfolio Showcase 2020 site to the John Jay community to navigate a collection of the best student ePortfolios. These selected students will be featured on an eZine style ePortfolio site that will include the student's statement, featured works and the link to their ePortfolio.

Office for Student Research & Creativity (OSRC)

May 4, 2020

The OSRC 2019-20 scholarship cohort poster boards and presentations will be featured through the OSRC website. The slides represent research and creative projects the 15 undergraduate and graduate scholarship students have accomplished throughout the academic year under the close supervision and committed guidance of their respective faculty mentors.

McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program

May 6, 2020 – 12:30-2:00pm

The John Jay McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program will conduct a webinar entitled, "McNair Scholars Share their Experience and Give Tips for Applying to Graduate School" with scholars who were accepted into PhD programs, discussing their research in the context of preparing for and applying to graduate school. (Meeting ID: 932 3772 5971; Password: 346448).

Honors Program

May 8, 2020

The Honors Program Digital Capstone Presentation is a showcase of Honors students' creativity across multiple disciplines. Knowledge, creativity and hands-on experience have always been at our core. We salute our Class of 2020 scholars who have persisted in their research in the most challenging circumstances.