SUBJECT: NYC Commission on Human Rights Training

Please see below announcement from our colleagues in the Office of Professional Development & Learning Management, University HR. We strongly encourage participation from our college community.

The University Human Resources, Professional Development & Learning Office has free, upcoming professional development opportunities available to all employees. These workshops are being offered through The NYC Commission on Human Rights (NYCCHR).

The first session will be held on Tuesday, October 1st, 2024. Registered employees will receive a meeting invitation with the link to the workshops the day before the session begins.

Human Rights Law and Age Discrimination in Employment:
Tuesday, October 1st from 10am – 11:30am

This workshop provides information about age discrimination in employment and protections against age discrimination under the City Human Rights Law for all workers. Examples of age discrimination in employment are discussed, as well as best practices for employers.

Understanding Muslim Experiences and Combating Anti-Muslim Bias:
Tuesday, January 14 from 10am – 11:30am

This workshop promotes understanding of the City's diverse faith communities. The workshop addresses what is referred to as anti-Muslim racism, introduces Muslim beliefs and practices, outlines best practices in working with Muslim New Yorkers, and elaborates on the protections under the City Human Rights Law against discrimination based on religion.

Understanding the Jewish Experience and Antisemitism:

Tuesday, January 21st from 10am – 11:30am

This workshop promotes understanding of the City's diverse Jewish communities. The workshop addresses antisemitism, its impact on Jewish New Yorkers, and its impact on larger society. It introduces Jewish history and practices, outlines best practices in working with Jewish New Yorkers, and elaborates on the protections for Jewish New Yorkers against discrimination, under the City Human Rights Law.
