Dear John Jay Faculty,

As we approach the close of the academic year, it is important to keep in mind that Ramadan is being celebrated from April 23 to May 23. There may be other religious observances during the close of this year. We wish to remind you of CUNY's policy about religious accommodation. In summary, students may request and be granted an accommodation on the basis of religious belief. The link to the policy is below.

Please let us know if you have questions about the policy, including how to apply it in any given instance.
