

Cory Miskell is the Colorado Director for the Latino Coalition for Community Leadership (LCCL), a grantmaking nonprofit advancing equity and the well-being of community with the mission to find, fund, form and feature nonprofits in marginalized communities to meet the needs of individuals and families. In this capacity, Ms. Miskell oversees several community reinvestment initiatives whereby state funds are provided to support community-led and community-based safety strategies. This investment is targeted to local nonprofits serving communities most impacted by crime and criminal justice system. Prior to her role at LCCL, Ms. Miskell worked in regulatory reform and occupational licensing. She is the Past President for the Council on Licensure, Enforcement and Regulation (CLEAR). Ms. Miskell lives in Denver, Colorado. She holds a Masters in Global Finance, Trade and Economic Integration from the University of Denver (Magna Cum Laude).