To: The John Jay College Community
RE: Veterans Day

At John Jay, we pride ourselves on being an institution that welcomes, supports, and advocates for veterans. We proudly count over 525 veteran students as an integral part of our community, and today, on Veterans Day, we applaud our veteran students, faculty, staff, and alumni who honored our country with their service. We owe them our gratitude, our respect, and our freedom.

As you'll see in the video below, the work ethic, camaraderie, and dedication of our veteran students never fails to impress. John Jay's veteran and military student graduation rate is consistently over 80 percent.

The sacrifices and contributions our veterans and their families have made for our country inspires us all. Their example reminds us to strive to pay it forward through service and kindness to others.

Today we humbly salute all of America's veterans.

Thank you,

Karol V. Mason
