

The City University of New York
Students' Bill of Rights

CUNY students who experience Sexual Violence, including sexual assault; domestic, dating, or intimate partner violence, stalking or voyeurism, are entitled to the following rights:

1. Make a report to local law enforcement and/or state police;
2. Have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously;
3. Make a decision about whether or not to disclose a crime or violation and participate in the judicial (or conduct) process, and criminal justice process, free from pressure by the institution;
4. Participate in a process that is fair, impartial, and provides adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard;
5. Be treated with dignity and to receive from the institution courteous, fair, and respectful health care, including, and not limited to, counseling services, where available;
6. Be free from any suggestion that the reporting individual is at fault when these crimes and violations are committed, or should have acted in a different manner to avoid such crimes or violations;
7. Describe the incident to as few institutional representatives as practicable and not be required to unnecessarily repeat a description of the incident;
8. Be protected from retaliation by the institution, any student, the accused (“respondent”), and/or their friends, family and acquaintances within the jurisdiction of the institution;
9. Have access to at least one level of appeal of determination;
10. Be accompanied by an advisor of choice who may assist, and advice, a reporting individual, accused (“respondent”) throughout the judicial (or conduct) process, including during all meetings and hearings related to such process; and,
11. Exercise civil right and practice of religion without interference by the investigative, criminal justice, or judicial or conduct process of the institution.
