Subject: Tuesday Sept 20, Meet the Deans working on Student Career Development and Professional Advancement

One of the areas our new administrative structure is intended to develop and amplify is student career development and professional advancement. Whether infusing the curriculum with intentional connections to workforce skills, cross-training academic and career advisors, providing experiential learning opportunities that enhance student awareness of career possibilities while increasing their employability, or developing internship cohort programs, Deans Carpi, Davidson and Villanueva are our team to take our student career outcomes to the next level. Come share ideas and ask questions with them next Tuesday, September 20th during Community Hour.
