POLITICAL SCIENCE (BACHELOR OF ARTS)

The major in Political Science introduces students to the principal fields of inquiry in political science. This major provides a program of study for students considering careers in a variety of fields, including public service, law, community affairs, international relations and politics. Students may select from among four concentrations-of-choice: Law, Courts and Politics which explores the intersection of the legal system and the broader political system; Justice and Politics, which examines the political philosophy and various societal values that underlie contemporary views of justice; American and Urban Politics and Policy, which emphasizes the role of political institutions in shaping solutions to contemporary urban problems; and Comparative/International Politics and Human Rights, which explores the global dimensions of politics and governance.

Learning outcomes. Students will:

- Initiate, develop, and present independent research
- Write effectively, engage in intellectually grounded debate, and form and express cogent arguments
- Develop skills in critical thinking in order to become knowledgeable citizens capable of reasoned judgments on contemporary political issues
- Demonstrate knowledge of the major subfields of political science
