

Computer Information Systems in Criminal Justice and Public Administration (BS) Program
Learning Objectives

- L1: Use and critically evaluate the variety of theoretical approaches that are relevant to Computer Information Systems.
- L2: Use and critically evaluate the variety of practical/hands-on/research approaches that are relevant to Computer Information Systems.
- L3: Analyze the quality of the Computer Science and Information Systems program to enable graduates to be successful in the highly competitive high technology industries and graduate schools.
- L4: Communicate effectively through integrating theory, research and policy in written reports and presentations.
- L5: Demonstrate proper business ethics and professionalism in the proposal or evaluation of solution to Computer Information Systems applications.