PROFILE

Hihi, my name is Gabriel. I go by Gabe for short and I tutor math 105, as well as physics 101. I'm here to work with you in order to find your strengths in tackling a certain math problem. Everyone learns differently, so let's see how we can turn your weakness in math into your strength. Math is just a puzzle so we start with the corner pieces and make our way into filling in the blanks. I failed my first math exam with a 40 so I got up, changed my approach to the class entirely, and passed the class with an A. I believe in you, you can ace it.
