

TLC Open Conversations

TLC Open Conversations are weekly hours offered to faculty and staff for informal conversation during the coronavirus pandemic. Hosted on Zoom, with additional security settings to maintain privacy and safety, these sessions are co-facilitated by Teaching and Learning Center Director Gina Rae Foster, Associate to the Provost for Faculty Matthew Perry, and Professor of Psychology Gabrielle Salfati. Our intent is to provide a safe space for sharing thoughts, emotions, questions, and ideas aligned with creating opportunities for building and sustaining community.

Please check faculty email each week for the next date and time (usually Tuesday or Thursday, 3-4pm) and for access information.
