

Anti-Violence

Anti-Violence Project \(AVP\)

AVP empowers lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and HIV-affected communities and allies to end all forms of violence through organizing and education, and support survivors through counseling and advocacy.

Black Women's Blueprint

Black Women's Blueprint is a civil and human rights organization whose purpose is to take action to secure social, political and economic equality in American society. They engage in progressive research, historical documentation, support movement building and organize on social justice issues steeped in the struggles of Black women within their communities and within dominant culture.

Center for Anti-Violence Education

The Center for Anti-Violence Education (CAE) works as a catalyst for change in the lives of women, LGBT people, teen women, children, and other communities especially those affected by violence. CAE's programs are designed to develop participants' skills, knowledge, and awareness to enable them to heal from, prevent, and counter violence.

Crime Victims Treatment Center of St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital \(CVTC\)

CVTC is the largest and most comprehensive hospital-based victim assistance program in New York State. CVTC is a model for other health care institutions in the United States and around the world in the respectful treatment of survivors of family and intimate partner violence, sexual assault, childhood sexual abuse, and other forms of violence and crime.

Dwa Fanm

Dwa Fanm (meaning "Women's Rights" in Creole) started as a volunteer-run community-based organization in 1999 when a group of eight Haitian and American women from diverse backgrounds met to discuss the state of women's rights in Haitian immigrant communities in the United States and in Haiti. Having established itself as a human rights organization, Dwa Fanm's mission is to empower all women and girls with the freedom to define and control their own lives.

New York City Alliance Against Sexual Assault

The mission of the New York City Alliance Against Sexual Assault is to build the capacity of communities, organizations, and institutions to advance the right to live free from sexual violence and reduce the harm it causes individuals, families, and society.

New York Asian Women's Center

The New York Asian Women's Center helps women and their children overcome domestic violence and other forms of abuse by empowering them to govern their own lives. The Center provides a safe haven through multi-lingual support programs and shelter services. In addition, the Center works to raise public awareness about violence against women, advocates for the rights of survivors, and acts as an agent of social change.

RightRides

The RightRides program offers women and LGBTQ individuals a free, safe, late night ride home on Friday and Saturday nights from 11:59 PM – 3 AM, (early Saturday and Sunday mornings) in 45 NYC neighborhoods across four NYC boroughs.

Safe Horizon

Since 1978, Safe Horizon has provided support and advocacy for victims of crime and abuse. Today, as the largest victims' service agency in the United States, Safe Horizon is recognized as a leader in responding to the changing needs of their clients, and is sought out as an expert on issues of violence and victimization across the country and around the world.

Sakhi

Sakhi for South Asian Women is an anti-domestic violence organization that works with the South Asian community in the New York metropolitan area.

Sanctuary for Families

Sanctuary for Families is the leading nonprofit in New York State dedicated exclusively to serving domestic violence victims, sex trafficking victims, and their children.

Sauti Yetu

Sauti Yetu's direct services, public education, and policy and advocacy programs promote African immigrant girls' safe transition into adulthood, curb violence in the family, and give poor and low income immigrant women access to life skills and leadership opportunities.

Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention Program \(SAVI\)

SAVI is dedicated to validating, healing and empowering survivors and their supporters to lead safe, healthy lives through advocacy, free and confidential counseling, and public education.

Students Active for Ending Rape \(SAFER\)

SAFER empowers students to hold their universities accountable for having strong campus sexual assault policies and programming.

Violence Intervention Program \(VIP\)

The Violence Intervention Program (VIP) is a nationally recognized Latina organization. Their mission is to promote nonviolent partner relationships, familias, and communities through raising awareness, activism, and culturally competent services that are respectful of each survivor's right to self-determination.