CENTER FOR STUDENT INVOLVEMENT & LEADERSHIP PRESENTS

WOMXN’S 2022 HERSTORY MONTH

March 8 | 1:40–2:40 PM
Women’s History Scavenger Hunt
In partnership: Black Student Union
Students will be grouped into teams and look for clues around the college through descriptions given. Prizes will be given out to teams in 1st, 2nd, & 3rd place.
Location: L2.71.00 NB (Outside CSIL)
Contact: bsu@jjay.cuny.edu | IG: @bsu.jjay

March 9 | 2:00–3:00 PM
Hood Herbalism with Berenice Diaz
In Partnership: CSIL & BMCC
In this interactive workshop, community based herbalist and founder of Hood Herbs, Berenice Dimas will share about the sacredness of plants, their medicine, and ancestral knowledge. We will discuss what it means to actively decolonize healing and connection with the earth during these times. Berenice Dimas (she/they/ ellas) is a queer community based herbalist, writer and birth worker. Her work encourages people to (re) connect with plants, the land and their own ancestral traditions. Berenice is the founder of Hood Herbalism, a community based herbal education project. Find out more about Berenice’s work by visiting her website berenicedimas.com.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3Mh59jr

March 9 | 2:00–3:00 PM
Zoom:

Contact: cendsley@jjay.cuny.edu

March 10 | 6:00PM
Resiliency Among Survivors of Gender-Based Violence
Globally, 1 in 3 women experience physical and/or sexual violence in their lifetimes, mostly by intimate partners. This is a stark reminder of the scale of gender inequality and discrimination against women. Join our experts and survivors for an honest discussion in honor of International Women's Month
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3MkRXHT
Contact: alumni@jjay.cuny.edu

March 15 | 2:00–3:00 PM
Women’s Herstory Month: If She Can See It, She Can Be It: Women in Leadership and Underrepresented Fields
In Partnership: CSIL & BMCC
Join us for a panel discussion with women who inhabit underrepresented spaces (tech, leadership, politics) to learn about being a woman in male-dominated spaces.

March 23 | 1:40–2:40 PM
Women’s Military Heritage Celebration
A celebration of women’s contributions in the US military led by keynote speaker, LTC Lashell Davis, US Army, Professor of Military Science, CUNY Army ROTC, and John Jay Veteran Students. With lunch. All students faculty and staff are invited.
Location: In-person in the Veterans’ Center (Haaren Hall, 228)
Contact: Richard Pusateri, Military and Veteran Services Manager
rpusateri@jjay.cuny.edu | 212-484-1329

March 23 | 10:50 AM–12:00 PM
Hip-Hop Mindset: Professional Practices of the Highly Creative, Successful & Dope
In partnership: Women’s Center for Gender Justice and Africana Studies
Dr. Toby Jenkins explores professional practices, ways of thinking, speaking and being that people who embrace hip-hop culture seem to share. These hip-hop habits of mind are cultural assets—intelligences, skills, beliefs that are generated from our cultural communities and that offer a counter-cultural perspective to the idea of a success mindset.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3hn93Gv
Contact: cendsley@jjay.cuny.edu

March 24 | 1:40–2:40 PM
The Shape of Sex
In Partnership: LGBT+ Resource Center
In a moment when questions about sex, gender, and identity have become incredibly urgent, this workshop will cast new light on a complex and often contradictory past. It shows how premodern thinkers created a system of sex and embodiment that both anticipates and challenges modern beliefs about what it means to be male, female—and human.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3hshpofsex

March 24 | 6:00–7:00 PM
Mechanic Femme Workshop
In Partnership: LGBT+ Resource Center
Do you want to set yourself up for car ownership success? Thousands of people have taken Mechanic Shop Femme car fundamental classes because they want to be better-educated drivers and consumers. Now you have the opportunity to attend a program designed for new drivers and car owners to cover the highlights and prepare you for car emergencies. It will help understand what your car is trying to tell you, starting with dash light recognition and responding to that, when your car should be towed instead of driven, and basic preventative maintenance everyone should know how to do. It's a great starting point for lifelong educated consumers.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3IRlMtv

March 28 | 2:00–3:30 PM
#MaternalHealthMonday: How Race, Class and Access Impact Maternal Health Outcomes for BIPOC Women
In Partnership: CSIL & BMCC
Join us for an interactive panel discussion exploring the factors that contribute to poor maternal health care outcomes for BIPOC women in the U.S.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3IRMitv
Meeting ID: 869 7539 2878

March 29 | 6:00PM
Dispelling Stereotypes of AAPI Women in the Workplace
In honor of Women's History Month, join us for a panel discussion with API women from a variety of industries as they discuss their experiences in the workplace.
Zoom: jjay.cc/aapiwomen
Contact: alumni@jjay.cuny.edu

March 30 | 10:50 AM–12:00 PM
How to Get Away with a Law Degree
In partnership: Women’s Center for Gender Justice and Africana Studies
Nanyanka Fleming, JD, will share her journey through law school, internships, and getting started as a professional, while navigating the legal field through a first-generation lens.
Zoom: https://bit.ly/3hn93Gv
Contact: cendsley@jjay.cuny.edu

April 1 | 10:00–3:00 PM
The Future of Black Women: How Will Hair Define You?
In partnership: Black Student Union
This is a conference highlighting black hair and the influence it has on women in their everyday lives—the adversity and joy that hair brings.
Location: TBD
Contact: bsu@jjay.cuny.edu | IG: @bsu.jjay